NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 2 I.A.—6th July 1957.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor proposes to make the following rules in addition to those published on pages 391-393 in part I of the Dacca

Gazette, dated the 12th April 1951 for the safe navigation of vessels in the line of navigation known as the Taltala khal in the district of Dacca as defined in notification No. 1-I.A., dated the 27th September 1950.

The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 1st October, 1957 and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered:—

Draft Rules.

1. Restriction on size of vessels.—No vessels exceeding 60 ft. in length or 15 ft. in breadth, including goods overhanging, or 6 ft. in draft shall enter or pass through the khal without permission in writing of the supervisor appointed under section 13.

2. Vessels to moor in certain circumstances and manner in which they are to be moored.

(1) Vessels shall moor head and stern along the banks of the khal in single line;

(a) When the danger signal, consisting of a red cone by day or a red light by night, is displayed at the signal mast at Kunder Bazar or the Gourgonj toll stations;

(b) When not making way through the water; or

(c) Whenever ordered by the supervisor.

(2) Vessels may unmoor when the all clear signal, consisting of a white ball by day or a white light by night, is displayed at the signal mast at Kunder Bazar or the Gourgonj toll stations.

(3) Vessels shall not anchor in the khal, or moor alongside of each other or in such a manner as to obstruct navigation in the khal.

3. Rule of the line of navigation—

(1) Every vessel, except sailing vessels, shall be kept to the side of khal which lies on its own right-hand side.

(2) Sailing vessels shall keep out of the way of vessels being tracked or poled and vessels under oars.

(3) Mechanically propelled vessels shall not overtake other mechanically propelled vessels in the khal; when overtaking other vessels they shall pass to the left of the vessels overtaken.

(4) No vessel shall navigate in such a manner as to obstract navigation in the channel.

4. Restriction on speed of mechanically propelled vessels.—No mechanically propelled vessel shall proceed at a speed in excess of 4 miles per hour. When passing each other in opposite directions, mechanically propelled vessels shall reduce their speed to 1 mile per hour.

5. Restriction on entry of mechanically propelled vessels.—No mechanically propelled vessels shall be allowed to enter the khal until the expiry of one hour from the time of entry of the last mechanically propelled vessel.

6. Savings as to Notification No. 40 Marine, dated 24th April, 1928 issued under the I. M. P. V. Act, 1917.—

(1) Save as herein provided the rules made under Notification No. 40 Marine, dated 24th April 1928 issued under section 52 of the Inland Mechanically Propelled Vessels Act, 1917 (Act I of 1917) shall apply to all vessels using the khal and a breach thereof shall be punishable without prejudice to any penalty to which any person may become liable for a breach of these rules.

(2) Vessels being tracked and vessels when moored shall show the same lights as are prescribed in the said notification for vessels at anchor.

7. Penalty.—Any person committing a breach of these rules shall be liable in respect of each such breach to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees and if the breach continues to a penalty not exceeding five rupees for each day during which the breach continues.

No. 3 I. A.—13th July 1957.—The following draft of amendments which, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor intends to make in the rules and schedule of rates of tolls (published in Bengal Government notification No. 5-I., dated the 17th July 1928 at pages 1637-41, Part I of the Calcutta Gazette, of the 2nd August 1928) for the line of navigation known as the Madaripur Bhil channel and the Lower Kumar river, as defined in Bengal Government notification No. 128, dated the 26th June 1900, and notification No. 162, dated the 22nd July 1902, is hereby published for information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

The draft will be taken into consideration on or after 1st October 1957 and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered.

Draft Amendments.

1. Insert the following after the first sentence ending with the word 'manifests' in the last paragraph of rule 4:—

"It shall be within the powers of the Toll Collector to verify occasionally the actual cargo on board with the appearing in the manifest, by any rough and ready means, before the person in charge of the steamer, flats and barges who shall provide all reasonable facilities for such check measurements and put his signature on the check measurements on behalf of the Company to which the steamer, flats and barges belong, in token of the acceptance of the same".

2. Insert the following after the word "Such officer" in the 3rd sentence of rule 6 "who shall be provided with toll tickets".

3. Substitute the word "South Eastern" for the word "Southern" in rule 22 and rule 36.

4. Substitute the following for the existing schedule of tolls.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "Board" means the Jute Board constituted under section 3;

(b) "contract" means a contract for export of jute;

(c) "exporter" means a person who exports jute from Pakistan;

(d) "jute" means the fibre of jute plant known botanically as belonging to the genus corochorus, and includes all the species of that genus whether commonly known as pat, kosta, nalia or by any other name and also means the fibre of the plant known botanically as hibiscus cannabinus and commonly as mesta;

(e) "notified order" means an order published in the official Gazette.

In the matter of Constitution of the Jute Board.

3. The Central Government may, for the regulation and promotion of international trade in jute, constitute, by notification in the official Gazette, a Jute Board with one Member or with a Chairman and one or more Members as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that if there be a Chairman and one Member, then that one and if there be a Chairman and two or more Members, then one at least of such Members shall be nominated by the Government of East Pakistan.

Functions of the Board.

4. The functions of the Board shall be—

(a) to execute the policy laid down by the Central Government in regard to international trade in jute;

(b) to supervise and regulate all dealings in international trade in Jute;

(c) to assist in making arrangements for the transport and shipment of jute to foreign countries;

(d) to make recommendations to the Central Government in regard to (i) measures for the regulation and promotion of international trade in jute, (ii) facilities for the export of jute to foreign countries, (iii) quality standards and the grading of jute to be exported from Pakistan, (iv) matters arising in connection with any export programme of jute which it may be necessary to observe from time to time and (v) the settlement of claims of, or against, the Central Government arising out of any price support scheme or scheme of State trading in jute; and

(e) to perform such other functions as the Central Government may, from time to time, direct.

Control of the Board.

5. The Board shall be subject to the superintendence and control of the Central Government and in the discharge of its functions shall be guided by such general or special instructions as may, from time to time, be given to it by the Central Government.

Fixation of prices.

6. (1) The Central Government may, by notified order, fix minimum prices below which and maximum prices above which jute of various grades shall not be sold for export from Pakistan.

(2) No person shall buy or sell or offer to buy or sell jute at any price below the minimum or above the maximum fixed under sub-section (1).

Registration of contracts.

7. The Central Gevernment may, by general or special order in writing, require any contract to be registered with such organization and in such manner as may be specified in the order.

Powers to secure fulfilment of contract.

8. If in the opinion of the Central Government it is expedient or necessary so to do for the purpose of securing the fulfilment of any contract on which an exporter has defaulted, it may appropriate to the contract any jute the defaulter may have in his own stock, or it may buy jute elsewhere and so appropriate it, and in both or either of such cases, the defaulter shall be liable for any loss which the Central Government may sustain on account of the default, but the defaulter shall not be entitled to any gain on the purchase made against such default.

Powers to issue directions to exporters.

9 The Central Government may direct any exporter or class of exporters not to transport, sell, use or otherwise dispose of any jute or jute of a specified description except in accordance with such conditions as may be specified.

Powers to call for information, etc.

10. (1) The Central Government may, at any time, by notified order, direct such persons or classes of persons as may be specified in the order to maintain such accounts and furnish such returns or other information relating to their business of sale or purchase of jute to the Central Government or to such officer or authority subordinate to the Central Government or the Provincial Government within such period, and giving such particulars, as may be specified.

(2) The Central Government may, by order in writing, require any persons to furnish or submit to it or to such person as may be specified in the order, any information, book or other document in his possession, being information, book or document which in the opinion of the Central Government should be obtained, inspected or examined for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(3) The Central Government may, at any time, by order in writing, direct such person or class of persons as may be specified in the order to furnish in such manner and to such person, such particulars relating to the fulfilment of any contract as may be specified in the order.

Delegation of powers.

11. The Central Government may, by notified order, direct that any power conferred upon it by or under this Ordinance shall, in relation to such matters and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also, by—

(i) the Jute Board, or

(ii) such officer or authority subordinate to the Central Government, or such Provincial Government or such officer or authority subordinate to a Provincial Government as may be specfied in the direction.

In the matter of Penalties.

12. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Ordinance or of any order or direction issued under this Ordinance shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(2) Any court trying an offence under this Ordinance may direct that whole or part of the jute in respect of which the court is satisfied that the offence has been committed shall be forfeited to Government.

(3) Where any person as aforesaid is a company or a body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer, and every agent and servant thereof, and in the case of an unlimited company or a company limited by guarantee, also any of its members, shall, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding sub-section, be punishable as if he had contravened the provision of this Ordinance.

(4) No such director, manager, secretary, or other officer and no such agent, servant or member as is referred to in sub-section (3) shall be prosecuted under this Ordinance unless he has been given an opportunity by the Central Government to show cause, within such time as the Central Government may specify, why he should not be prosecuted, and if it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Central Government at any time before the institution of the prosecution that he has used due diligence to enforce the observance of the provisions of this Ordinance and the orders and directions issued thereunder or that the offence has been committed without his knowledge or against his consent, the Central Government shall for bear further proceedings against him:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent the Central Government from proceeding against him further if on discovery of new facts it sees reason to do so.

False statements.

13. If any person—

(i) when required by any order made under this Ordinance to make any statement or furnish any information, makes any statement or furnishes any information which is false in any material particular and which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, or does not believe to be true, or

(ii) makes any such statement as aforesaid in any book, account, record, declaration, return or other document which he is required by any such order to maintain or furnish, or

(iii) maintains double sets of books, accounts or any other records, in which the entries are not identical,

he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or wtih both.

Cognizance of offences.

14. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Ordinance except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made by a person who is a public servant as defined in section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code. Act XLV of 1860.

Special provision regarding fines.

15. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of the First Class specially empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf to pass a sentence of fine exceeding one thousand rupees on any person convicted under this Ordinance. Act V of 1898.

Presumption as to orders.

16. Where an order purports to have been made and signed by an authority in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Ordinance, a court shall, within the meaning of the Evidence Act, 1872, presume that such order was so made by that authority. I of 1872.

Repeal.

17. The Jute Act, 1957, is hereby repealed. IV of 1957.

GOVERNMENT OF PAKISTAN.

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE.

ORDINANCE NO VI OF 1957.

Karachi, the 29th June 1957.

AN

to provide for measures for the promotion of international trade in cotton.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for measures for the promotion of international trade in cotton;

And whereas the National Assembly is not in session, and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render immediate action necessary;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by Article 69 of the Constitution, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the President is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Cotton Ordinance, 1957.

(2) It extends to the Federal Capital, and with the exception of section 6, to the rest of Pakistan.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "contract" means a contract for the purchase or sale of cotton, and includes a factory selection contract;

(b) "cotton" means unginned cotton (kapas) or ginned cotton (rui) or pressed and baled cotton but does not include wool cotton or silk cotton

(c) "factory selection contract" means a contract for the sale of cotton entered into in Pakistan and providing for selection by the buyer at the factory and for delivery of the cotton selected in full pressed bales at Karachi within the period and at the price specified in the contract;

(d) "notified order" means an order published in the official Gazette;

(e) "pressing factory" means a place wherein steam, water or other mechanical power or electric power is used and where cotton is pressed into bales.

Constitution of the Cotton Board.

3. The Central Government may, for the promotion of international trade in cotton, constitute, by notification in the official Gazette, a Cotton Board with a Chairman and such other members, of whom one may be nominated by the Government of West Pakistan, as may be specified in the notification.

Functions of the Board.

4. The Board shall have power to supervise and regulate all dealings in cotton, in so far as they are connected with the promotion of international trade therein, and shall perform such functions as the Central Government may, from time to time, direct for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Control of the Board.

5. The Board shall be subjected to the superintendence and control of the Central Government, and in the discharge of its functions shall be guided by such general or special instructions as may, from time to time, be given to it by the Central Government.

Requisition of factories, etc.

6.—(1) The Central Government may, by general or special order, requisition any pressing factory or any place, whether open or enclosed, and use the same for pressing or storing cotton belonging to Government, and for purposes incidental thereto.

(2) If any such factory or place is requisitioned under this section, there shall be paid compensation which shall be determined either with the agreement of the parties concerned, or by an arbitrator chosen with their consent, and in the absence of such consent, by an arbitrator to be appointed in accordance with the provision of section 8 of the Arbitration Act, 1940. X of 1940.

(3) The arbitrator in determining the compensation under sub-section (2) shall have regard to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 23 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, so far as the same can be made applicable to acquisition of a temporary nature. I of 1894.

Power to secure fulfilment of contracts.

7. If in the opinion of the Central Government, it is expedient or necessary so to do for the purpose of securing the fulfilment of any contract relating to export of cotton on which the exporter has defaulted it may buy cotton elsewhere and appropriate it to the contract, and the defaulter shall be liable for any loss which the Central Government may sustain on that account, but the defaulter shall not be entitled to any gain on the purchase made against default.

Explanation.—In this section 'exporter' means a seller of cotton to a foreign buyer or to his agent in Pakistan.

Power to call for information.

8.—(1) The Central Government may, at any time, by an order in writing, direct such person or class of persons as may be specified in the order to furnish such particulars relating to the fulfilment of any contract relating to export of cotton, in such manner and to such person as may be specified in the order.

(2) The Central Government may, by order in writing, require any person to furnish to it, or to such person as may be specified in this order, any information in his possession, being information which the Central Government may require for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Registration of contracts.

9.—The Central Government may, by general or special order in writing, require any contract relating to export of cotton to be registered with such organisation and in such manner as may be specified in the order.

Control of contracts through recognised associations.

10.—(1) The Central Government, if satisfied that it would be in the interests of the trade and also of the public to do so, may, by a notified order and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, prohibit any specified kind or class of contracts, such as forward contracts or hedge contracts, unless such contracts are made through and under the control of, and in the manner prescribed by, an association recognised by the Central Government under sub-section (2).

In the matter of th

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Central Government may, by a notified order, recognise any association, constituted for the purpose of regulating and controlling contracts, which applies for such recognition.

(3) A recognition under sub-section (2) may be granted subject to the condition that the association shall by such amendments of its articles of association, rules or bye-laws as may be necessary provide for the appointment by the Central Government of not more than four persons, representing interests not directly represented through membership of the association, as members of the governing body of the association.

(4) Every association, which is recognised under sub-section (2), shall furnish to the Central Government such information and such periodical returns relating to the affairs of the association as the Central Government may by order in writing require.

(5) The Central Government may, by order in writing, give such directions, as it considers necessary in the interests of the trade and the public, to an association recognised under sub-section (2) in respect of contracts to which this section applies.

(6) No articles, rules or bye-laws of an association recognised under sub-section (2) shall be altered save with the previous approval of the Central Government.

(7) Whenever the Central Government considers it expedient to do so, it may by order in writing, direct any association recognised under sub-section (2) to make, repeal or amend any articles, rules or bye-laws of the association in the manner and within a period specified in the order; and if the recognised association refuses, fails or neglects to comply with the direction within the specified period, the Central Government may, by a notified order, make, repeal or amend the articles, rules or bye-laws in the manner specified in the order giving the direction or with such modifications as the Central Government may think fit; and the making, repeal or amendment of the articles, rules or bye-laws shall be deemed to have been duly effected by the association.

(8) If the Central Government is of the opinion that the interests of the trade and the public require that the recognition accord to an association under sub-section (2) should be terminated, the Central Government may, after giving the association a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter, by a notified order, terminate the recognition on and from the date of such order or any specified date subsequent thereto, and the association shall cease to be an association recognised under sub-section (2) from the date of such termination:

Provided that such termination shall not affect the validity of any contract entered into or made before the date of such termination.

Delegation of powers.

11. The Central Government may, by a notified order, direct that any power conferred upon it by or under this Ordinance shall, in relation to such matters and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable by the Cotton Board.

Penalty, etc.

12.—(1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with an order made or direction given under this Ordinance shall be punishable as if he had contravened a provision of this Ordinance.

(2) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Ordinance shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(3) Where any person as aforesaid is a company or a body corporate, every director, manager, secretary or other officer, and every agent and servant thereof, and in the case of an unlimited company or a company limited by guarantee, also any of its members shall, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding sub-section, be punishable as if he had contravened the provisions of this Ordinance.

(4) No such director, manager, secretary, or other officer and no such agent, servant or member as is referred to in sub-section (3) shall be prosecuted under this Ordinance unless he has been given an opportunity by the Central Government to show cause, within such time as the Central Government may specified, why he should not be prosecuted, and if it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Central Government at any time before the institution of the prosecution that he has used the diligence to enforce the observance of the provisions of this Ordinance and the orders and directions issued thereunder and that the offence has been committed without his knowledge or against his consent, the Central Government may forbear further proceedings against him:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent the Central Government from proceeding against him further if it sees reason to do so.

In the matter of False statement.

13. If any person—

(i) when required by an order under this Ordinance to make any statement or furnish any information, makes any statement or furnishes any information which is false in any material particular and which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, or does not believe to be true, or

(ii) makes any such statement as aforesaid in any book, account, record, declaration, return or other documents which he is required by any such order to maintain or furnish,

he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

Cognizance of offences.

14. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Ordinance except on a report in writing of the facts constituting such offence made by a person who is a public servant as defined in section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code. Act XLV of 1860.

Special provision regarding fines.

15. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of the First class specially empowered by the Provincial Government in this behalf to pass a sentence of fine exceeding one thousand rupees on any person convicted under this Ordinance. Act V of 1898.

Presumption as to orders.

16. Where an order purports to have been made and signed by an authority in exercise of any power conferred by or under this Ordinance, a Court shall, within the meaning of the Evidence Act, 1872, presume that such order was so made by that authority. I of 1872.
