(Import Trade Control)

The 7th September 1959

Attention of industrial consumers is hereby invited to a news item published in "Dawn", issue of 27th August, 1959, under the heading "Transfer of surplus equipment—Permission not necessary" wherein the Director-General of Industries, Trade and Commerce, East Pakistan was reported to have declared that Industrial Units would now be allowed to give on loan and sell surplus equipments to help run another industrial unit and that no prior permission of the Government would be required for the purpose in future. This is in fact not the correct position. In this connection attention of all concerned is drawn to the Public Notice (Import Trade Control) No. 339/107/58-IMP-1, dated the 19th February, 1959 issued by the Ministry of Commerce, Government of Pakistan, Karachi, in which the procedures to be followed in such cases have been clearly notified.
