(3) Employees shall draw their leave salary in Pakistan currency in Pakistan irrespective of the country where they spend their leave.

Note—The restriction imposed under sub-rule (3) shall not, however, apply in the case of study leave granted under Appendix No. 5 of the East Bengal Service Rules, Part I.

7. Maximum leave permissible at a time—The maximum amount of leave that may be taken at one time shall be one year but if supported by a medical certificate it may be extended two years.

8. Other provisions—(1) Extraordinary leave for which no leave salary is admissible may be granted to any employee in special circumstances—

(a) When no other leave is by rule admissible, or

(b) When other leave is admissible but the employee concerned applies in writing for the grant of extraordinary leave.

(2) (a) Except in the case of an employee in permanent employ, the duration of extraordinary leave shall not exceed three months on any one occasion:

Provided that this restriction shall not apply in the case of an employee not in permanent employ who is permitted to go abroad for foreign training after executing a bond to serve Government for a period of five years:

Provided further that in case of absence on account of prolonged illness extraordinary leave may be granted to a temporary employee up to a maximum period of six months on production of a medical certificate.

(b) Temporary employees who contract tuberculosis may be granted extraordinary leave up to a maximum of twelve months on any one occasion, provided that—

(i) the post from which the employee proceeds on leave is likely to last till he returns to duty; and

- (ii) the extraordinary leave shall be granted on the production of a certificate specifying the period for which the leave is recommended, from the Medical Officer-in-charge of a sanatorium or from a T. B. Specialist or Civil Surgeon, who in recommending leave shall bear in mind the provision in rule (7) under Appendix No. 8 of the East Bengal Service Rules, Part I.

(3) The authority empowered to grant leave may commute retrospectively period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

9. (1) Leave at the credit of an employee in his leave account shall lapse on the date on which he must compulsorily retire provided that if at least three months before the date of commencement of the leave he has—

- (a) formally applied for leave, and been refused it, or
(b) ascertained in writing from the sanctioning authority that leave if applied for would not be granted, in either case the ground of refusal being the exigencies of the public service, then the employee may be granted after the date of retirement the whole or any portion of the leave so refused subject to a maximum of four months by the authority empowered to grant it.

(2) An employee retained in service after the date of compulsory retirement shall earn leave on average pay at the rate of one-eleventh of duty performed after that date and shall be allowed to add thereto any amount of leave which could have been granted to him under sub-rule (1) had he retired on that date. The total period which he may take on each occasion shall not exceed four months.

When his duties finally cease, the employee may be granted leave preparatory to retirement, up to a maximum of four months as follows:—

- (i) the balance after deducting the amounts of leave, if any, taken during the period of extension, from the amount of leave which could have been granted to him under clause (1) had he retired on the date of compulsory retirement, plus
(ii) the amount of leave earned under this clause which is due to the Government servant and which he has, at least three months before the date of termination of the period of extension—
(1) formally applied for and been refused, or
(2) ascertain in writing from the sanctioning authority, would not be granted, if applied for,

in either case the ground of refusal being the exigencies of the public service.

Note 1—This rule simply limits the amount of leave that may be granted to employees who have reached or are about to reach the date on which they are required to retire. The kind of leave and the leave salary are determined not by this rule, but by the general rules in rules 3 and 7.

Note 2—The proper test in applying this rule is whether it would be more convenient on general administrative grounds for an employee to take leave before or after the age of superannuation and employees should be warned that the rule is intended to apply only in cases in which an employee with leave due to him has applied for leave at least three months before the commencement of the leave and his application has been refused owing to the exigencies of the public service, and that is not intended to apply so as to enable an employee at his own option to take leave after, instead of before the date of retirement.

Note 3—The period of four months mentioned in this rule includes any period of vacation with which leave is combined.

Note 4—A deduction should be made under sub-rule (2) on account of vacation enjoyed.

Note 5—The leave earned by the period of duty intervening between the refusal of leave pending retirement and the date of compulsory retirement is merged in the common pool in the leave account and forms an indistinguishable part of the total leave at credit the whole of which, with the exception only of the net amount of leave refused, lapses under clause (1) of rule 9 on the date of compulsory retirement. The grant of any leave between the date from which the "refusal of leave" took effect and the date of superannuation should, therefore, be held to be a grant of leave against the amount originally refused. The amount of leave admissible under clause (1) after superannuation in such a case is therefore the amount of leave originally refused minus the amount of the "post-refusal" leave enjoyed; and this difference is subject to a maximum of four months. The principle applies equally to leave available under clause (2) including that earned in respect of duty during a period of refused leave.

10. Any kind of leave under these rules may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave under these rules.

11. All other rules regulating the general conditions of granting leave as set out in notification No. 1255T-Edn., dated 12th October 1938 so far as they are not inconsistent with or repugnant to these rules, shall continue to apply in all cases.

By order of the Governor,
A. HASAN, Secy.

The Fourth Estimate of Rice Crop of East Pakistan for 1959-60

[Note—This estimate deals with the revised estimates of acreage and production of Autumn and Preliminary Estimates of acreage of Summer rice grown in East Pakistan during the 1959-60 covering the period from March 1959 to the middle of March 1960.]

Character of the Season—The weather condition since the publication of the third estimate was throughout the whole Province except few districts where heavy rainfall affected the crops. But dry weather affected the crops of some districts due to continuous drought and as such the of the crops is estimated to be less than that of the third estimate. Attacks of insectpest reported from some districts.

Acreage—The estimated acreage of different variation of rice are shown below:

Name of variety.	Fourth estimate, 1959-60.	Fourth estimate, 1958-59.	Final 1958-59.
1. Autumn rice	5,945,000	5,644,400	5,644,400
2. Winter rice	14,289,400	13,140,900	13,140,900
3. Summer rice (Preliminary acreage).	864,000	841,500	841,500
Total	21,098,400	19,626,800	19,626,800

Outturn—The Provincial outturn of the crops in percentage of the normal are shown below:

Name of variety.	Fourth estimate, 1959-60. per cent.	Fourth estimate, 1958-59. per cent.	Final estimate, 1958-59. per cent.
1. Autumn rice	88	69	69
2. Winter rice	92	83	83

Yield—The yield calculated on the basis of the above estimated percentage outturns and taking the yields as 10.9 and 12.4 maunds of clean rice per acre for Autumn and winter rice respectively follows:

Name of variety.	Fourth estimate, 1959-60.	Fourth estimate, 1958-59.	Final estimate, 1958-59.
1. Autumn rice	2,094,800	1,559,400	1,559,400
2. Winter rice	5,988,300	4,968,200	4,970,300
Total	8,083,100	6,527,600	6,570,100

The decrease in yield in comparison with the third estimate of this year is due to continuous drought.

S. D. CHAUDHURI,
Director of Agriculture, East Pakistan
